GUESTS ON THE SHOW:

TWO WAYS HOME

As I walked into the studio today who was sitting there but Isabella Mak & Lewis Fowler,

Lewis from Gloucestershire, UK and Isabella from Vienna, Austria. These two are turning out to be firm favourites in the UK/Americana scene. They have been traveling here, there and everywhere around Europe, including Switzerland where, believe it or not, Lewis' dad built a Chapel.

They have shared the stage with the likes of Natalie Imbruglia and Ward Thomas and have played at festivals such as 'The Long Road' and 'Nashville Meets London'.

They were discovered by 'Caffe Nero' and after a long tour, they came back to receive 'Artist of the Month' and even to this day if you go to your local Caffe Nero, you are bound to hear one of their songs.

In 2023, Two Ways Home were crowned 'Caffe Nero Artist of the Month' for the second time! Lewis started to write a called: 'She Keeps Time Like A Casio Watch' because Isabella is always late. You can catch them at 'The Round' down at the 'Cumberland Hotel' in North London where they host a songwriters night where they share the stage playing all their own self-penned songs.

MARCY GRACE

Originally from San Antonio, here is a singer/songwriter with a powerful voice. This rock chick is going from strength to strength; she plays with a band and keeping it in the family on bass is her dad. You could say it's a rock band disguised as a country band.

Marcy from the age of five has loved playing musical instruments, her first being drums. Marcy penned 'Margarita Man' which is featured in the film Margarita Man.

She has also sung with Terri Clarke and The Bellamy Brothers to name a few.

Marcy took the honour of writing and recording the official anthem for San Antonio Brahmas Football team as sport is one of her passions.

In 2018, Marcy received 'New Female Vocalist of the Year', in 2019 'Solo Artist Of The Year', in 2021, she was nominated for 'Best New Female Artist' and in 2025 names 'The Emerging Songwriter Of The Year'!

Marcy is one of the rare people that likes to give back to her community. She is involved with 'Any Baby Can', which is an organisation that supports families with children and young adults who are facing health or developmental challenges.
